

Doctoral Program in Environmental Studies Degree Program in Life and Earth Sciences

【Guidelines and Requirements】 SUSTEP (Sustainability Science, Technology, and Policy) Doctoral Program

Course designation	Course group	Course name or conditions	Required credits
Specialized foundation courses	Environmental Studies Related Courses	Forum on Environmental Studies I (2 credit, Compulsory elective)	4~
		Forum on Environmental Studies II (2 credit, Compulsory elective)
		Environmental Studies Practicum I (2 credit, Compulsory elective)
		Environmental Studies Practicum II (2 credit, Compulsory elective)
Specialized courses	Environmental Studies Related Courses	Exercise of Environmental Studies I (1 credit)	2
		Exercise of Environmental Studies II (1 credit)
		Total credits required for completion	6~
This Program requires a student to study for three years or more. During this period, it is expected to obtain 6 credits or more by taking the above mentioned courses. In addition, a student needs to obtain necessary research supervision for doctoral dissertation, receive evaluation, and pass the final exam. However, those who accomplished outstanding research achievements may complete the Program after studying for one year or more in this Program (Note that those who had early graduation arrangement in their Master's programs, it is necessary to study for three years or more, including Master's program enrollment period).			