

JDS International Seminar 2015 • Part I

Sustainability Policy & Practice

December 14 & 15, 2015

Room C103, Natural Science Building C

University of Tsukuba

JDS Program in Environmental Policy
Master's Program in Environmental Sciences
Graduate School of Life and Environmental Sciences
University of Tsukuba

Monday, December 14th From 10:30 to 12:00

Dr. Joseph DiMento

University of California, Irvine,
School of Law
Professor

Joint appointment in Planning and Law and Criminology, Law and Society, and Transportation Sciences
"Livable Cities: Lessons from Successful Cases"

Tuesday, December 15th From 9:15 to 10:30

Dr. ir. Martine Rutten

Delft University of Technology
Faculty of Civil Engineering and Geosciences Water Resources Management
Assistant professor

"Information Systems as Water Lilies for Leapfrogging in Water Resources Management"

Tuesday, December 15th From 10:45 to 12:00

Mr. Steve Conrad

Simon Fraser University
School of Resource & Environmental Management
Instructor, Pacific Institute of Climate Solutions Fellow

"Participatory Policymaking: A Canadian Approach to Managing Environmental Issues and Uncertainty"