

JDS International Seminar 2019, Part2

January 20-21, 2020

Natural Science Building C103, University of Tsukuba

Monday, January 20, 9:40–10:55

“Environmental Policy and Protest in Historical Context: Forest Conservation in Early Modern and Modern France”

Dr. Kieko Matteson

Associate Professor and Undergraduate Coordinator,
Department of History, University of Hawai’i, Manoa

Monday, January 20, 10:55–12:10

“Environmental Governance of the Arctic: Global Significance and Legal Strategies”

Dr. Joseph F. C. DiMento

Professor, School of Law,
University of California, Irvine

Tuesday, January 21, 9:30–10:45

“Studying Change: How a Theoretical Perspective Feeds Technology Development Research”

Dr. Maurits W. Ertzen

Associate Professor, Water Resources Civil Engineering and Geosciences, Delft University of Technology

Tuesday, January 21, 10:45–12:00

“Beyond borders: the management of the Rhine”

Dr. Adrian Schmid-Breton

Scientific assistant, International Commission for the Protection of the Rhine

Sponsor: SUSTEP Program, Graduate School of Life and Environmental Sciences, The University of Tsukuba
Contact: jds_office@envr.tsukuba.ac.jp