

ABE Special Lecture, No.2

What kind of people do we want to work with overseas ?
- a perspective of a private company -

Mr. Naoki Yasuda

(General Manager, Overseas Business Office, the Wellthy Corporation)

Profile: After completing a graduate degree, Mr Yasuda went to Ghana as a Japan Overseas Volunteer and taught science at a local high school.

After returning to Japan, he has been involved in many local water supply projects as a development consultant. He has worked for the Wellthy Corporation since 2013 and undertaken water supply demonstration projects in Kenya, using his rich international experience.

February 13, 2017 14:00-16:00

Natural Science Building B107

University of Tsukuba